THE COWARD AT WORK IN CHINA.

Europe is in trouble over resistance it is meeting in China to its scheme of partition of the old empire. There seems to be more life in the old body than was anticipated by the powers.
The agreement to divide and the parties who should be benefited by the division was a matter which seems to have been arranged without any special friction; but the agreement to divide and the fact of division seem to be very different in results. It required little effort to bring the question to the point required to furnish an excuse for a division, but the real work of apportionment is meeting at the beginning with more resistance than was anticipated by the bandits.

When Christendom has said the earth shall be divided among us and we will rule in our way, there will be more opposition to the arrangement than advanced civilization has estimated, if the action of China is not deceiving to those who look upon the course pursued by the nations in the light of history and facts present. Five hundred millions of people who have failed to keep abreast of the times may not for that cause be disposed of without an effort by their despoilers.

However effete China may be as understood by the bearded race, possessed as they are with power and energy in means of war, there is and will continue to be for many years in the future a latent force that the nations have not taken into consideration sufficiently in calculations made when division was agreed upon. The nations were engaged more particularly in calculations upon their particular rights to the spoils than upon means necessary to the accomplishment of the end agreed on, which is becoming known by surprise expressed at the beginning of the work necessary to appropriation.

The nations are right in maintaining the requirements of an advanced civilization to protect the person and give freedom of action in the empire to those who enter it for the purpose of commerce, or to declare their convictions in matters of conscience. These rights belong to the person of each individual as freedom is understood in natural law and fact; but the question takes another form when it is proposed to maintain these personal rights by destroying the empire to satisfy the ruling ambition of the age among commercial nations, which is to extend their dominion over the earth and mankind, to acquire money and the means to get it.

The love of money is the moving cause for the partition of the empire, and not the love of God. The livery of heaven is used in the service of Mammon, which has been its method from the beginning, and it has succeeded in a very plausible way in fooling the generations of men who have lived and died in the pathway of the ages.

A partition of the empire is a part of the work that the money power has taken in hand to rule the earth. It has become necessary to conquer and partition China to place the world on a gold base. The division will be a result of the tyrant dollar wearing the garb of religion. It is the cowardly dollar backed by guns that will make partition of the old dominion of China.
Its weakness has invited the coward to make the attack but it is being discovered that the usual caution of the coward has not been present when it was figuring profits from power, as the weakness estimated is not present in so large a sense as was expected.

It is no more a question of a port or a question including an island but it is a question of life or death to the empire that effects all Chinamen alike, which will bring the united strength of China to a common center for the defense of the graves of their fathers which is patriotism in China. Should there be any person who has observed the course of the administration since the beginning of the Spanish war and thought upon development made from time to time, who believes the administration is not in the Chinese partition scheme he has made a mistake.

The understanding there is between Great Britain and the administration includes the partition of China and the United States will receive a portion of territory with all of its consequences the labor of the country which consequences will be in exact line with partition of the dollar, which is so to the man with the administration power, that the man will go to hades to find material the people. It will furnish an excuse for a large standing army which is the chief object there is sought at his time, but the sentiment of the country is against it at present and it will have to be educated to accept another chain to be: it under the general heading—progress.

It will turn loose upon labor, the Asiatic, which the same power would do tomorrow were it not that public feeling is against it, which would include a certain loss of power. The trap is set but the dollar does not see its way clear to spring it, to complete the enslavement of labor to its will.
A standing army is necessary to the completion of its work against the people and the republic.

Gossip About the Migrating Pub-

Captain Overton was among yesterday's hotel arrivals.

Uncle George Frazier came up from Miss Hattie Cooper arrived from

Reelection of Teachers.

A meeting of the Reno school board was held yesterday. All the teachers were re-elected with the exception of Miss Ede, who was not an applicancausy caused by her resignation will be filled at the next meeting of the board.

Salaries will remain as heretofore.
No assignment to classes was made.
Miss Josephine Blum was chosen as an additional teacher. Owing to increased attendance another class will be formed for her.

A New Departure for Reno.

F. C. Savage's new Plumbing & Heating Display store and office at 318 Virginia street will be opened about July 1st.

Mr. Savage intends to devote his time exclusively to the business. All work will have his personal supervision.

He has employed Mr. Davis of San Francisco who comes highly recommended to the people of Reno.

With Mr. Savage's experience and the assistance that a first-class up-to-date workman from the city affords, they should, and will, undoubtedly, command a good share of the public patronage in the plumbing and heating line.

Troops for

The Sixth regiment U. S. cavalry passed through Reno Sunday night and Monday in several special trains.

There are eight troops in the regiment and six of them have orders to sail for Manila immediately.

The different troops, up to the time of receiving these orders, were stationed in various garrisons in the middle west states.

Those seen are a husky lot of troopers and I have the typical sang froid air of Uncle Sam's regulars.

Card of Thanks.

Such kindness as was shown me during the time of my affliction by my friends and neighbors indeed makes the pathway of life brighter and pleas-anter, notwithstanding death's dark shadow. I desire in this public manner to thank, first, the friends of my dead boy, J. C. Dauchy, for the respect and kindly feeling they showed him. I also wish to express my gratitude to one and all business men of Reno and Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va.
About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen to double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has nothad a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS. For sale by Wm. Finniger.

In almost every neighborhood there is some one whose life has been saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or who has been cured of chronic diarrhoea by the use of that medicine. Such persons make a point of telling of it whenever opportunity offers, hoping that it may be means of saving other lives. For sale by Wm. Finniger

Red Hot from a Gun
Was the ball that hit G. H. Steadman, Newark, N. J., in the thigh, which in these days of "shoot to kill" cautions will cause a shudder among those who see infection lurking in every gun. It is called strawberry-berry-baking and is conducted in this fashion:
At the close of a dinner, the cloth is removed, and there is placed upon the table an immense bowl into which are emptied half a dozen bottles of Bordeaux wine, four of cherry and two of rum, besides sugar and nutmeg. Into this mixture is put a very large strawberry, which floats upon the surface. The bowl is provided with two handles. These are used to lift the vessel and tilt it so that the strawberry may be brought near the edge and sucked into the mouth. This would appear an easy feat, but it is a difficult one, as the fruit rolls over when touched with the lips. The contestant in the effort swallows a considerable quantity of the liquid concoction.
This is the reason for the game, for the bowl is passed from one to the other many times in succession before the strawberry is captured. When that moment finally arrives, all of the guests have reached a ripe stage of hilarity. This is the game as it is played among the higher classes. Among those of a lower social standing the fiery liquor of the country is substituted for wine. With them strawberry fishing develops into a function compared to which a fighting mixed ale party in this town is the recreation of a group of peace seeking Quakers.—New York Sun.
